

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF MOUNT LEBANON: 100 FOR THE 100TH CAMPAIGN

To celebrate Mt. Lebanon's centennial, the Historical Society of Mount Lebanon is hosting special talks, a special exhibit at its history center and other special events including the 100 for the 100th campaign—an effort to raise the society's membership by 100 during 2012.

Whether you have lived in Mt. Lebanon for 7 months or 70 years, you are part of the community's history and the historical society needs your help to support its mission to preserve Mt. Lebanon's rich history.

Because it is June and membership runs January 1 through December 31, the society is offering a special deal—join now and get six months free! That's right, your membership won't expire until December 31, 2013!

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- * Reduced admission to paid events
- * Updates about programs and events
- * Subscription to the quarterly Cedar Tree Newsletter
- * Invitations to member-only events

For more information about the society, log on to www.hsmtl.org or visit the history center at 200 Lebanon Avenue.
