

PERMIT PROCEDURE FOR SHED (RESIDENTIAL)

New, replacing, or relocating requires a permit

(Only applicable for single family detached dwellings. All others require a building permit.)

Before applying for a permit please read and submit all of the following items for review:

Zoning Permit Application

- Two (2) copies of a current to-scale Property Survey – showing property lines, yard offset dimensions, right of ways, and all applicable accessory structures. Survey shall have the surveyor’s name and seal. A typical to-scale survey is on 8-1/2”x14” (legal size) paper. Photos of survey will not be accepted.
- Two (2) copies of Shed Details
 - Sketch the location of the shed on the survey and show and all dimensions and distances from property lines.
 - Sheds must be five (5) feet from all property lines, measured from the outermost point applicable to each property line.
 - Only one storage structure is permitted per lot. Lot must have a house on it for a shed to be permitted.
 - If a project adds 500 square feet of impervious surface, stormwater management will be required.
 - Sheds shall be designed/situated to not have water runoff directed towards a neighboring property.
 - If there are grade changes or retaining walls being installed as part of the project, the permits for these items shall be submitted with the shed permit. ***

 See additional Permit Procedure Handouts for these items.

Please note this is a guide and may not be all inclusive.
